

RESPECT

- Stay on marked trail
- Respect cultural sites
- No collecting artifacts
- Report disturbances to the Zuni Police Department at (505)782-4493.

EASY TRAILS

Black Rock Trail - 5 miles
Trailhead: Black Rock Dam

Cottonwood Trail - 3 miles
Trailhead: Rte. 301 N/A Avenue

Wagon Trail - 2 miles
Trailhead: Zuni Wellness Center

Bluebird Trail - 4.5 miles
Trailhead: T-Bird Drive

Mountain Bluebird Trail - 3.5 miles
Trailhead: St. Anthony Dr/Service Rte 10

MODERATE TRAILS

Ojo Caliente Trail - 13.1 miles
Trailhead: Ojo Caliente Road

Wolf Trail - 6 miles
Trailhead: North Sandy Springs

Badger Trail - 2.5 miles
Trailhead: Silt Road, Lasiloo Sub.

Bear Trail - 5 miles
Trailhead: Zuni Head Start

DIFFICULT TRAIL

Mountain Lion Trail - 8 miles
Trailhead: Zuni Head Start

Trail work was completed by the Zuni Youth Enrichment Project and Zuni Health and Wellness Coalition Built Environment Committee with support from the New Mexico Department of Health, Catena Foundation, and the New Mexico EDD Outdoor Equity Fund.

CONTACT

Zuni Youth Enrichment Project
PO Box 447
Zuni, NM 87327
(505) 782 - 8000

info@zyep.org

[www.facebook.com/
zuniyouthenrichmentproject](https://www.facebook.com/zuniyouthenrichmentproject)

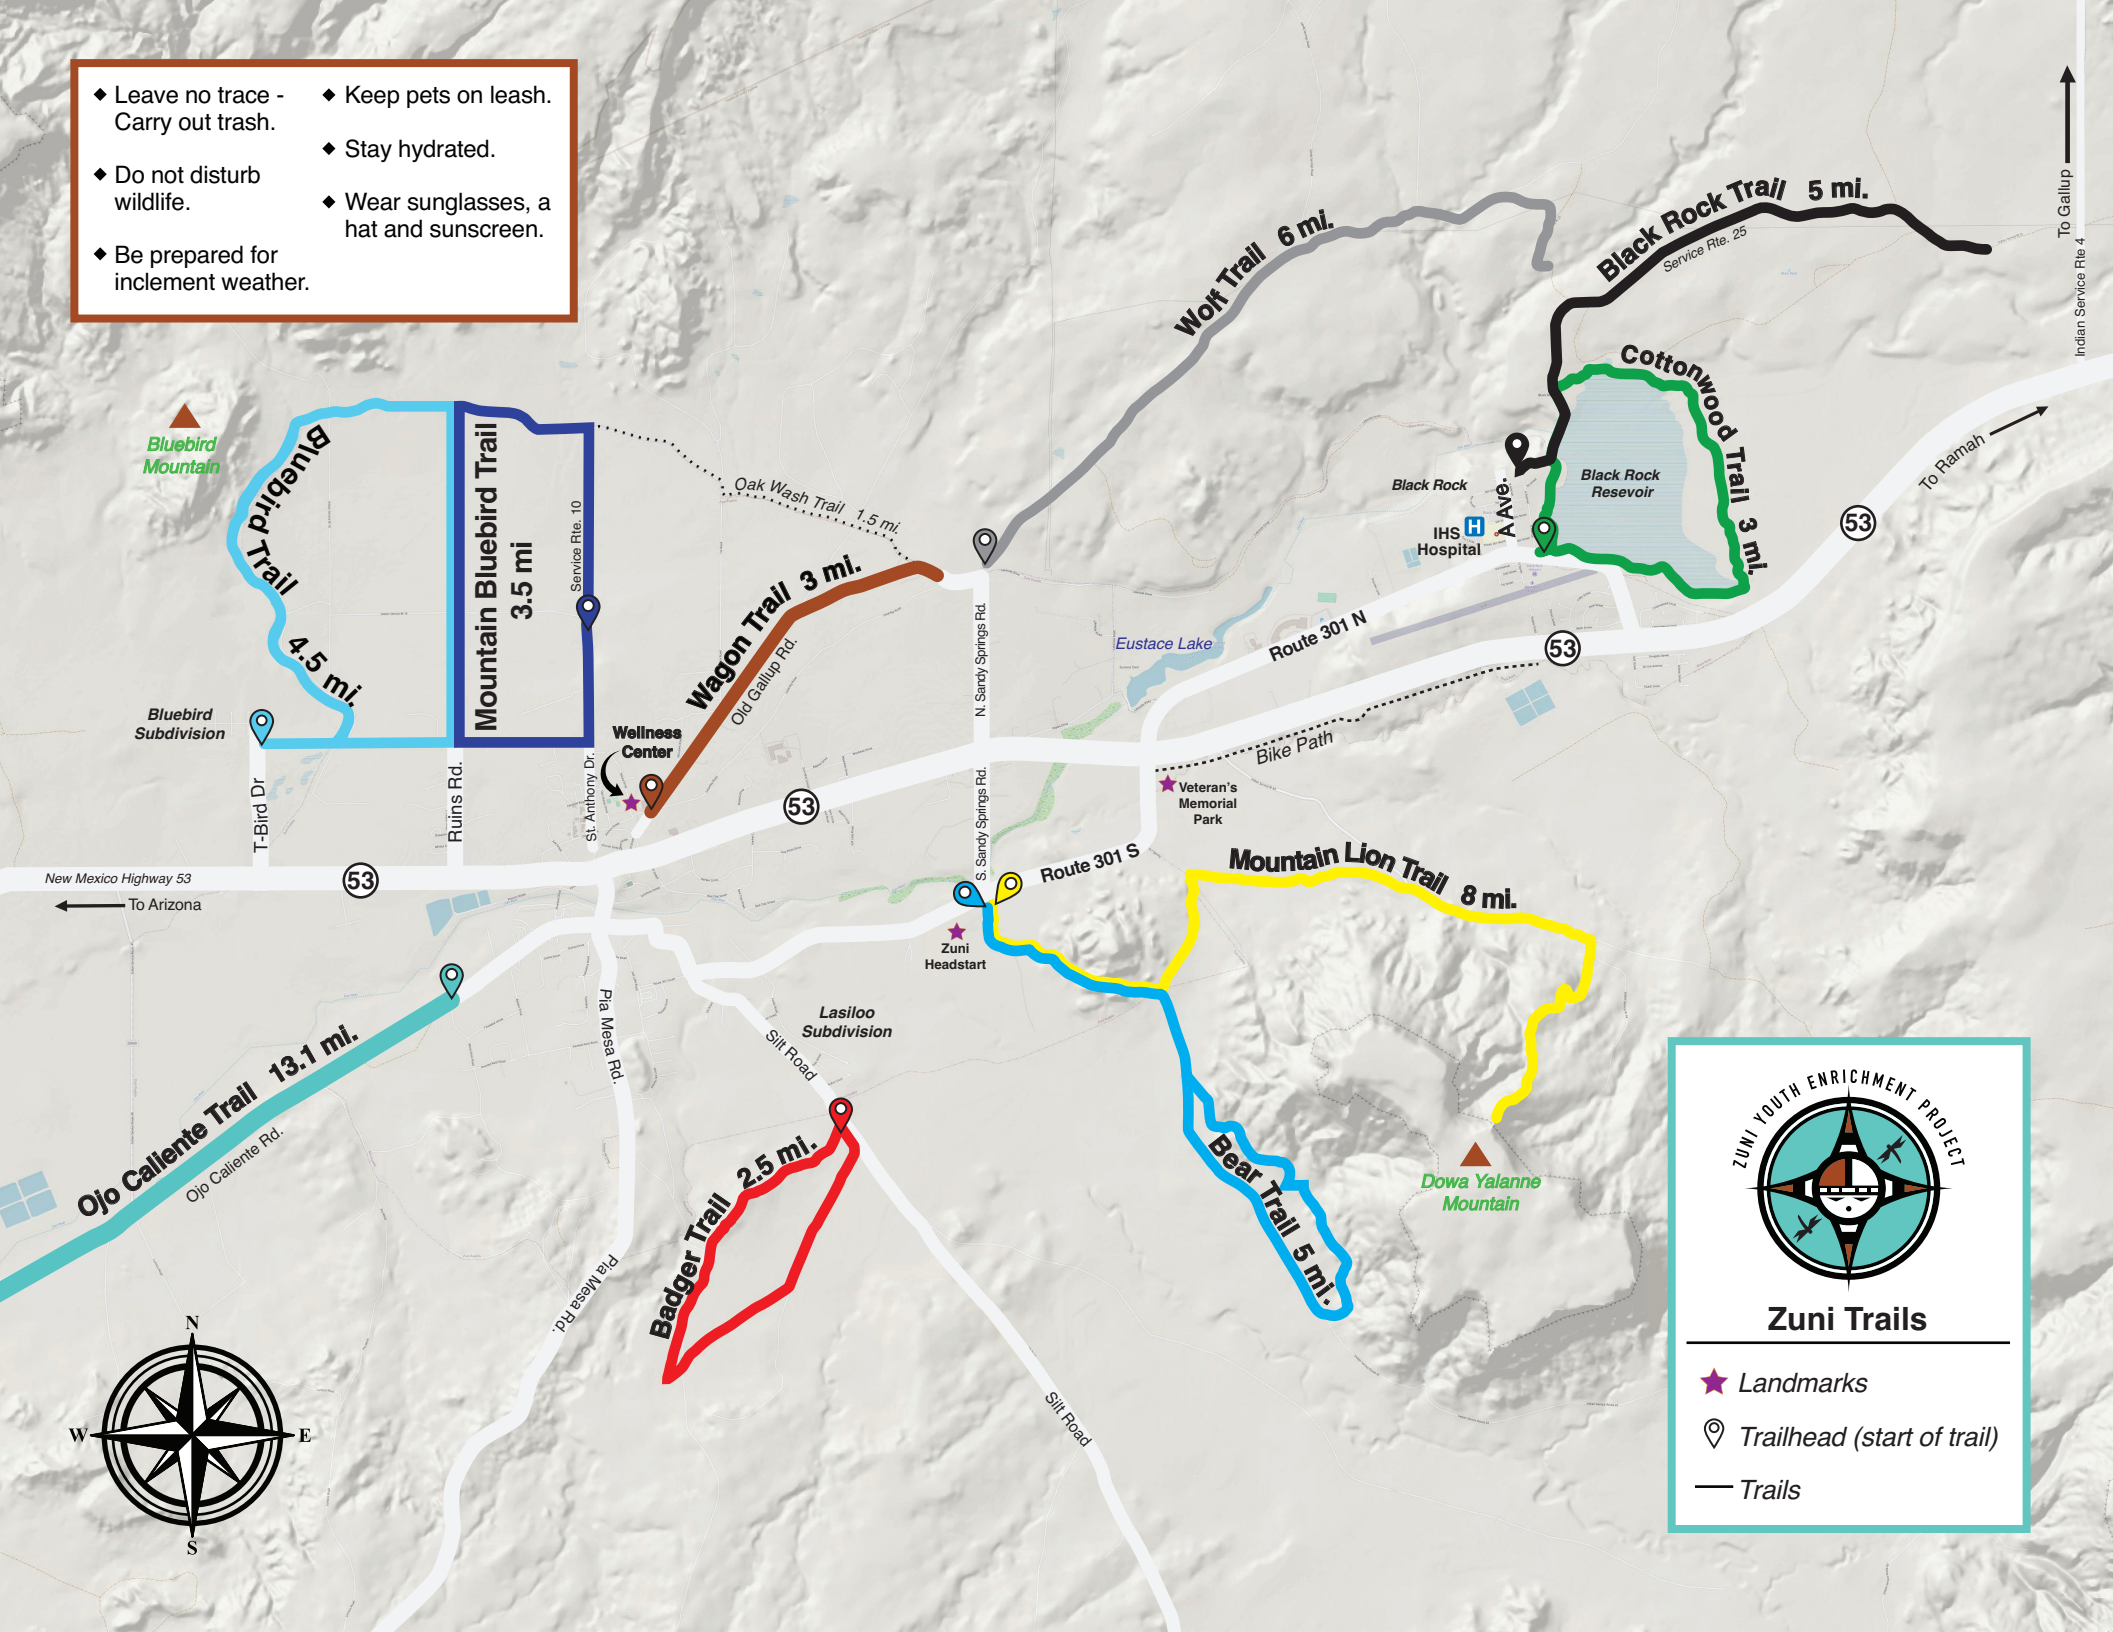

[www.instagram.com/
zuniyouthenrichmentproject](https://www.instagram.com/zuniyouthenrichmentproject)

ZUNI COMMUNITY TRAILS

Visit www.zyep.org for more information and to support the Zuni Youth Enrichment Project, a local non-profit organization supporting the health of Zuni Pueblo Youth.

- ◆ Leave no trace - Carry out trash.
- ◆ Do not disturb wildlife.
- ◆ Be prepared for inclement weather.
- ◆ Keep pets on leash.
- ◆ Stay hydrated.
- ◆ Wear sunglasses, a hat and sunscreen.

ZUNI YOUTH ENRICHMENT PROJECT

Zuni Trails

- ★ Landmarks
- 📍 Trailhead (start of trail)
- Trails

To Gallup
Indian Service Rte 4

To Ramah

New Mexico Highway 53
To Arizona